

ENTERPRISE

ABOUT US

Stone Enterprise is a Cleveland based economic and community development consulting company that helps financial institutions, non-profits and other community based organizations with planning, strategies, and implementation of programs and funded projects. With over 30 years experience in business banking, real estate development, project management and community engagement. Stone Enterprise consultants are looking forward to helping you with your next project.

MISSION:

Stone Enterprise informs, designs, and supports efforts to stabilize, revitalize and enhance community and economic conditions.

VISION:

Establishing connected, empowered and engaged individuals and businesses thriving in economically stable communities.

SERVICES:

Program Development

We help you with the planning, development, funding and execution of economic and community development programs. Our team of consultants can work with your staff to bring your project to completion on time and on budget.

Small Business Consulting

We provide consulting services for small businesses to assist them with financial packaging, funding strategies, budgeting and presentations for capital attainment. Our management consulting services are used by small businesses to help manage the financial targets established by short and long term funding providers.

Non-Profit Management

We help with funding execution, board development, fundraising and debt management solutions. Our consultants specialize in helping your organization grow efficiently. We realize that the size of your staff may change; however, the mission and responsibilities do not. Our services can bridge the gap when you need it most.
